

ABSTRACT

A manipulation mechanism that can be attached to the heart and other organs of the body so that the organs can be positioned, lifted, turned and held in place during diagnosis, testing, treatment and surgical procedures on the 5 organs.

#188730

10